

AGENT BENEFITS

Your listings will be “Certified” ASP Staged - As the agent, it is important to you that your sellers do all that is necessary to properly prepare their homes for marketing. We will diligently follow-up with your sellers to make sure that all of the T's have been crossed and all of the I's have been dotted. We are committed to getting the job done right so that you can just concentrate on a quick sale.

Personalized QR Code on Sign Rider for Mobile Phone Exposure - Today's home buyers are savvy - we offer the latest in technology to assist you in the marketing exposure for your Staged listings by offering mobile phone QR codes on attractive sign riders that lead directly to your listing on Stagedhomes.com. After being able to view enticing interior photos and a short home description with your contact information right on their mobile phone, buyers will feel compelled to call you to see more!

Additional exposure on Stagedhomes.com (over 11 million hits/month) - Your Staged listing will appear on Stagedhomes.com - the only web site that features exclusively certified Staged homes. With over 11 million hits per month, this is added exposure for you, the agent, as well as the Staged homes that you list and sell.

MLS Ready “After” Photos for your marketing campaign - In order to provide “turn-key” service to you, the agent, we provide high-resolution “after” photos to present your listings in their best possible light. Just let us know your MLS file size requirements and we will pre-format them for you. All you have to do is upload!

Sponsored Client Reception - Many sellers are so pleased with the way that their Staged homes look, they are thrilled to invite family, neighbors and friends to see the difference! We offer to sponsor a reception for you and your client so that they can show off their new look! We send out the invites and provide the hors d'oeuvres while you relax and meet possible new clients. This not only gives the home added exposure, but you as well.

Sponsored Broker Open House - Now that your Staged listing shows its very best, The Buyer's Eyes will offer to sponsor your Broker's Open by assisting you in the preparations and hosting of the event. First, we prepare an attractive flyer for you to share with other brokers and associates; second, we provide lunch or desert of your choice; and third, we will sponsor a prize drawing to help you increase traffic through your open house.
